

Personnel - General

AWARD OF CAP MEDALS, RIBBONS, AND CERTIFICATES

CAPM 39-3, 2 July 1998, is supplemented as follows:

18b(1) (Added) Group and squadron commanders are authorized to award selected service ribbons to personnel assigned to their units. Unit commanders may approve these actions only for members who satisfy the criteria outlined in CAPR 39-3. Any waivers of the specific criteria for a service ribbon must be approved by the wing commander. The following activity ribbons are authorized for approval below wing level.

- (a) Cadet Recruiter Ribbon
- (b) Senior Recruiter Ribbon
- (c) Red Service Ribbon
- (d) Community Service Ribbon
- (e) Cadet Orientation Pilot Ribbon
- (f) Counterdrug Ribbon
- (g) Disaster Relief Ribbon
- (h) Air Search and Rescue Ribbon

18b(2) (Added) The wing commander will award the command service ribbon to group commanders within the wing. The wing commander may approve these actions only for those members who satisfy the criteria outlined in CAPR 39-3.

18b(3) (Added) Group commanders are authorized to award the command service ribbon to commanders of their subordinate units. Group commanders may approve these actions only for those members who satisfy the criteria outlined in CAPR 39-3. Any variation from the specific criteria for each activity or service ribbon must be approved by the wing commander.

24e. (Added) Colorado Wing Junior Cadet of the Year Award.
